Hosting A Forever Healthy Lecture

Forever Healthy is committed to education! Coupled with dedication to research, Forever Healthy's approach helps inspire while simplifying with leading edge clarity to the forefront of the Health and Wellness industry. We offer a variety of dynamic and inspiring lectures, all part of our Complete Life Extension Health Program helping incorporate keys to success in all areas of well-being.

Some current topics include:

Super Foods • Happy Hormones • The Power of Water • The Power of Juicing
Forever Healthy Life Extension Program • Simple Cleansing Program • Forever Fit

Lecturing in health stores, trade shows, home parties, weekend retreats, lunch & learns and alternative health centers all parties successfully benefit both financially as well as providing a great new and desired service to empower clients. Watch your relationships grow!

Lecture and workshops can be customized to address a specific group or topics of interest.

What's involved and how it works best:

- Host (You) arrange and advertise the event and acquire the space
- Forever Healthy expenses are paid by Host (i.e. food costs for event and travel/accommodation if applicable)
- A minimum of pre-paid attendees is required and established prior to each event
- We negotiate a price that fits the event; amount per person or % of sales
- Host sells and profits from any FH products (WS to Retail Margin)
- Consulting – Wayne/Jeanette can do short consults after events, and share monies with Host as well as, more product recommended client.
